When Geronimo receives an invitation to the wedding of his friend's cousin, he's excited to attend. But when he arrives at the church, he realizes that he's crashed the wrong wedding! The bride and groom are complete strangers, and Geronimo has no idea how he ended up there.

Geronimo tries to sneak out, but he's caught by the wedding planner. She mistakes him for the wedding photographer and forces him to take pictures of the ceremony. Geronimo is horrified, but he goes along with it, hoping that he can escape before anyone realizes he's not the real photographer.

But things get even more complicated when Geronimo meets the bride's beautiful sister, Penelope. Penelope is kind, funny, and intelligent, and Geronimo is immediately smitten. But he knows that he can't pursue a relationship with her, because he's already engaged to marry his longtime girlfriend, Thea.

Geronimo is torn between his feelings for Penelope and his loyalty to Thea. He doesn't want to hurt either of them, but he also doesn't want to miss out on the chance to be with the woman of his dreams.

As the wedding reception gets underway, Geronimo finds himself caught in a series of hilarious and embarrassing situations. He accidentally spills punch on the bride's dress, he gets stuck in the photo booth, and he even ends up dancing with the mother of the groom!

But through it all, Geronimo never loses his sense of humor. He always manages to find the funny side of things, even when things are at their most chaotic.
