Synopsis

Step into the vibrant and enigmatic world of 1920s London, where flappers dance the night away and secrets lurk in every shadow. In Murder for the Modern Girl, Detective Inspector Ian MacAllister finds himself entangled in a perplexing case that shakes the very foundations of society.

When the lifeless body of aspiring actress Lily White is discovered in a seedy back alley, MacAllister is called in to investigate. With his sharp wit and unwavering determination, he delves into a labyrinth of deception, where every clue leads him deeper into a web of danger and forbidden desires.

As MacAllister navigates the glittering ballrooms of Mayfair and the gritty streets of the East End, he encounters a cast of enigmatic characters: a seductive nightclub owner with a scandalous past, a brilliant forensic scientist with a troubled mind, and a charming but enigmatic aristocrat who seems to know more than he lets on.

As the investigation intensifies, MacAllister uncovers secrets that threaten to shatter the carefully constructed facade of the upper classes. Lily White's murder becomes a catalyst for exposing the hidden vices and simmering resentments that lie beneath the surface of this seemingly idyllic era.
