The story centers around the Johnson family, who live in a four-story apartment building in the heart of a bustling city. The family consists of Mom, Dad, and their two children, 10-year-old Lily and 7-year-old Sam. The Johnsons are a close-knit family, and they love their apartment building. It's a place where they can be themselves and where they always feel loved and supported.

One day, the Johnsons' lives are turned upside down when they learn that their apartment building is going to be demolished. The family is devastated. They don't want to leave their home, and they don't know where they're going to go.

But the Johnsons are a resourceful family, and they're not about to give up. They decide to take matters into their own hands and find a new home. The family sets out on a journey that takes them all over the city. They visit different neighborhoods, meet new people, and have all sorts of adventures along the way.

In the end, the Johnsons find the perfect new home. It's a beautiful house in a quiet neighborhood, and it's the perfect place for the family to start a new chapter in their lives.

My Family Four Floors Up is a heartwarming and humorous story about the importance of family and home. It's a story that will resonate with readers of all ages, and it's a story that will stay with readers long after they finish reading it.
