Jack and Annie are best friends who love to explore. One day, they're playing in the woods when they come across a strange, glowing object. They touch it, and suddenly they're transported to the moon!

The moon is a strange and wonderful place, full of craters, mountains, and deserts. Jack and Annie are amazed by everything they see. But they soon discover that the moon is not as empty as it seems.

Meet a race of friendly aliens called the Lunarians. The Lunarians are short and green, with big heads and large eyes. They're also very friendly and welcoming. Jack and Annie quickly make friends with the Lunarians, and they learn about their culture and way of life.

But not all of the creatures on the moon are friendly. The evil Dr. Maniacal is also on the moon, and he's planning to steal the Lunarians' most precious treasure: the Moon Stone.

Jack and Annie must stop Dr. Maniacal and save the Lunarians. They'll have to use all of their courage and intelligence to defeat Dr. Maniacal and his evil plans.

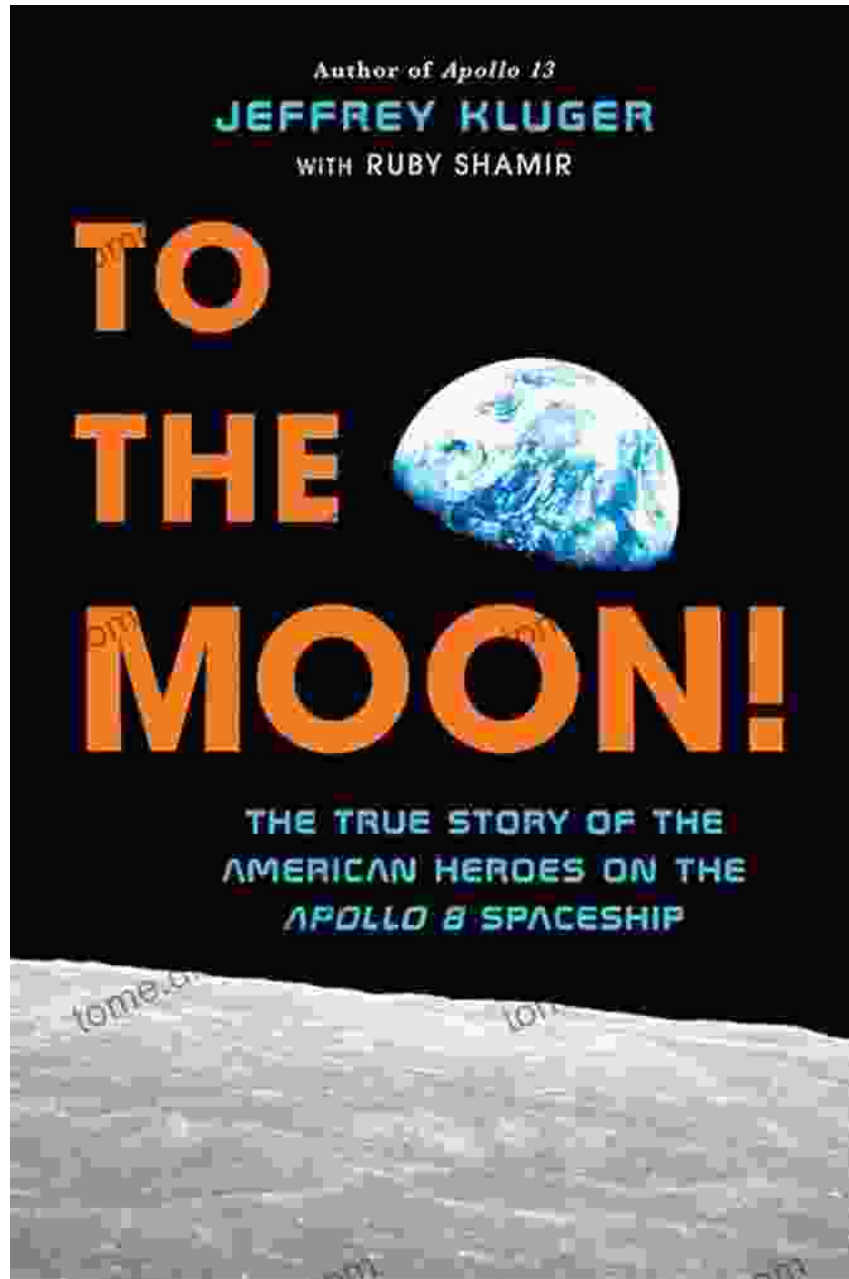

Part The Hollow Moon is an exciting and funny middle-grade science fiction novel that's perfect for fans of adventure, friendship, and space. With its lovable characters, fast-paced plot, and stunning setting, Part The Hollow Moon is a book that kids won't be able to put down.
