Geronimo and his friends are enjoying a relaxing vacation in the Kingdom of the Fantasy when they stumble upon a strange mystery. The famous surfing trophy, the Golden Surfer, has been stolen!

Geronimo and his friends decide to investigate the theft and soon find themselves on a wild goose chase. They follow clues that lead them all over the island, from the bustling city of New Mouse City to the secluded beaches of the Mouse Coast.

Along the way, Geronimo and his friends encounter a cast of colorful characters, including a surfing instructor with a secret past, a mysterious surfer who seems to be hiding something, and a group of mischievous mice who are always up for a good time.

With his trademark humor and determination, Geronimo unravels the mystery of the stolen trophy and discovers the true meaning of friendship and adventure.
