HOW TO ANSWER BAR EXAM ESSAY QUESTIONS IMPRESSIVELY

By: Atty. Ruben C. Talampas, Jr.

The then Chairperson of the Committee on Bar Examinations, Madama Justice Amelina Melencio-Herrera, admitted a report to the Philippine Supreme Court her observations on the 1980 bar exams

According to her several examinees have made very unsatisfactory showing to such an extent that there is one who obtained a grade as low as 7% another obtained a grade of 11%, still some others obtained grades of 12%, 16%, 17%, 18%, 19%, 20%, 21%, 24%, 25%, 26%, 27%, 31%, 34%, etc."

She pinpointed the general weakness of the bar examinees. She said, "In fact, for this high failure rate, may be attributed to several factors among them is the quality of the undersigned, may be due mainly to the following: - inadequate command of the English language"

She further emphasized: "The examinees inhabiting the lowermost ranges of the grading scale manifested not alone an appalling lack of knowledge of the fundamental principles involved in the examination questions but also an inability to logically string their thoughts together compounded by an almost incredible deficiency in language skills."

It was less than 35 years ago but still her remarks seem to be true at present.

The following are actual questions and answers of some examinees which demonstrate their lack of knowledge of the fundamental legal principles and adequate command of the English language.

Question No. 5(b) - "A defendant was found guilty of double murder and was meted out two sentences of reclusion perpetua. How would the accused serve the sentences?"

Answer - "Both penalties must be served by the accused, and he was electrocuted and died when it washes out the remaining sentence to served by the accused."

Question No. 11 - "Paisiman Cruz, acting under orders of the Municipal Mayor Who wanted to put a stop to the frequent occurrence of robbery in Sitio Masakal, patrolled the place. At about midnight, seeing three persons acting suspiciously in

Essay Questions:

- Choose a particular idea or theme, such as romantic love, death, or nature, and consider how it is treated in two Romantic poems.
- How do the different authors we have studied so far define and describe oppression?
- Compare Frye's and Bartky's accounts of oppression. What does each imply about women's collusion in their own oppression? Which is more accurate?
- In the texts we've studied, soldiers who served in different wars offer differing accounts of their experiences and feelings both during and after the fighting. What commonalities are there in these accounts? What factors do you think are responsible for their differences?

Issue: Define the relevant legal issue

Relevant law: Apply legal principles from cases and statutes.
Explain the law - don't just state it

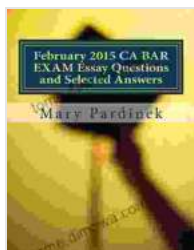

Apply to the facts: Develop legal arguments by applying the law to the facts

Conclusion: Arrive at a considered conclusion

Students gain the most marks by explaining the relevant law and then applying it to the facts.
